

AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame hosts Fall Bike Night

The AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame welcomes all motorcyclists and other community members to its Fall Bike Night, 4:30-7:30 p.m. Oct. 9 at the American Motorcyclist Association campus in Pickerington, Ohio.

Admission to the event is free. Motorcyclists of all backgrounds are welcome to enjoy the camaraderie and music, as well as food and beverages sold by local vendors. An AMA-sanctioned adventure ride will allow riders to test their big bike off-road skills.

Bike Night also includes free admission to the Hall of Fame, which houses motorcycles, memorabilia and other displays connected to motorcycling racers, innovators, advocates and industry leaders.

Wilbur Hancock wins AMA Youth 250cc speedway championship

Wilbur "Will" Hancock, the 15-year-old son of four-time FIM Speedway World Champion Greg Hancock, recently clinched one speedway championship and hopes to earn another by the end of the year.

Biketoberfest reduces scope for 2020

Biketoberfest is a go for Oct. 15-18 in Volusia County, Fla., but the annual gathering of motorcycling enthusiasts likely will be smaller than in its previous 28 years.

While Daytona Beach officials denied vendor permits due to concerns about the continuing coronavirus threat, in nearby Ormond Beach, commissioners granted vendor permits, allowing popular attractions Destination Daytona and the Iron Horse Saloon to cater to the crowds.

Tourism officials expect far fewer motorcyclists this year than the typical 100,000 who attend the annual fall event.
